

Graffiti Wall

Are you sick of Big Tobacco's lies and manipulation? Get your thoughts out on paper. . . a lot of paper! Create a long paper wall and cover it with anti-tobacco graffiti.

Here's how:

- Contact someone at your school, community center, or local mall and ask if you can cover a wall with poster paper. Try to get a wall that you walk by a lot (chances are a lot of other people do too).
- Write a phrase in big print on the poster such as, "Hello Big Tobacco from the Youth of (insert your town/group here)!"
- Have directions for everyone to write their personal feelings or stories about tobacco on the poster. Can't come up with a personal feeling? How about a fact?
- When you have enough stories, look over the poster to make sure everything is appropriate (no swear words, mean things about other people, etc).
- Get some pictures of people adding their thoughts to the wall, and of the whole wall when it is finished. These could be sent to the local paper to run with a story about your activism against the tobacco industry.
- Take the poster and mail it to your favorite tobacco industry executive (you can get their address from the company websites).
